Dear SARMA,

I am delighted to know that you have completed 5 years of association with our Organization on 10th August, 2014. I honor this association and congratulate you on my own behalf and on behalf of the HCL family.

It is with the untiring support and valuable contribution from you during the years gone by that the organization has crossed many milestones and reached its present status. We value your and your family members' contribution to your success and the success of the organization. Success is a process for us and we will continue to achieve milestones after milestones.

HCL looks forward to your continued valuable contribution towards achieving greater heights in future.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
